Chinese shoes Network December 21 hearing, many Guangzhou people are reflected, to see fast expired milk big promotion when buying milk can not help but want to buy, but sometimes buy a home I will forget to drink, this way, but the results have been able to save money wasted.

for this situation, experts say, in fact expired milk can also be used to maintain expensive shoes, as long as the proper usage, expired milk can be "recycled" .

According to reports, the first method in accordance with the usual care shoes, the shoes with shoe polish brush again, add a drop or two of white vinegar in shoe polish, make the shoes more shiny bright. After brushing shoe polish, will be set aside to dry shoes first 5 minutes, then dip some of the expired milk with a soft cloth, spread evenly on the shoes, and finally with a clean cloth to wipe clean.

Thus treated both light and durable shoes.
